Dear Renechito Mercado STO DOMINGO

Notification of grant of a Employer Nomination (subclass 186) visa

A decision has been made on this application and visas have been granted on 11 April 2017 to the applicant(s) listed in the attached Visa Grant Notice.

Keep a copy of this letter and the Visa Grant Notice in a safe place for your reference. Your Visa Grant Notice contains useful information which you will need when accessing your electronic visa record through the Department of Immigration and Border Protection's digital systems. The information may also assist organisations and airlines when undertaking checks.

If your application contained multiple applicants, each applicant who has been granted a visa will be sent their own visa grant notice. Any other applicants should not make arrangements to travel to Australia unless they have received their own visa grant notice.

Yours sincerely

Department of Immigration and Border Protection

Visa Grant Fact Sheet

Renechito Mercado STO DOMINGO

This information will help you understand your visa.

Client service information

We value your compliments, complaints and suggestions. Your compliments let us know where we are performing well and your complaints help us to improve our services.

Further information on our client service charter and how to make a compliment, complaint or suggestion is available at www.border.gov.au/about/contact/provide-feedback

First entry date

You must make your first entry to Australia before 14 September 2017. It is not possible to change this date.

Australian Working Conditions

Know your workplace rights

Pay rates and workplace conditions are set by Australian law. All people working in Australia, including those from overseas, have rights and protections at work. These cannot be taken away by contracts or agreements.

If you have questions about your pay and conditions while in Australia, you can contact the Fair Work Ombudsman for free information, resources and advice.

Visit fairwork.gov.au for information for visa holders and international students. This includes information in 27 languages. There are also a range of helpful videos at www.youtube.com/fairworkgovau about working in Australia in many languages.

You can also contact the Fair Work Ombudsman by phone within Australia on 13 13 94 (Translating and Interpreting Service 13 14 50).

Pay

Your minimum pay rate can come from an award, enterprise agreement or other registered agreement, or the national minimum wage. Employees have to be paid the right pay rate for all hours they work including training, team meetings, opening and closing the business and doing a trial shift.

National minimum wage

Certain employees may have different pay entitlements depending on whether they have a reduced work capacity because of disability, if they are under the age of 21 or if they are an apprentice or trainee. You can calculate your correct pay and entitlements using the Pay and Conditions Tool at www.fairwork.gov.au/pay

Further information on employment in Australia is available on the Department's website at www.border.gov.au and on the website of the Department of Employment at www.employment.gov.au

Character requirements

Entering or remaining in Australia is a privilege. You must obey the law and not engage in criminal activity.

Your visa may be cancelled for a number of reasons, including if you have a criminal record or behave in a way that is a risk to somebody in the Australian community.

More information is available at www.border.gov.au/about/corporate/information/fact-sheets/79character

Checking your visa details

You can check and email your visa details and conditions at any time using the Visa Entitlement Verification Online (VEVO) system. To access VEVO, you can either use the QR Code provided above or visit www.border.gov.au/vevo

You will need to enter the following information:

- Your Visa Grant Number or Transaction Reference Number, and
- Your passport or ImmiCard information.

You can also check and email your visa details through the myVEVO mobile app.

Travelling to and from Australia

You can provide evidence that you have the authority to travel to and enter Australia, and/or remain in Australia by showing your passport or ImmiCard linked to your electronic visa record.

More information is available at www.border.gov.au/aboutyourvisa

Most countries have specific entry, exit and visa requirements. If you are transiting or exiting through another country, it is your responsibility to check with the relevant government authorities. The Australian Government cannot advise on other countries' requirements.

Travel to Australia

You must make your own travel arrangements and pay your own airfares to travel to Australia. However, you may be eligible for concession fares provided by the International Organization for Migration (IOM). Further information about the range of services that may be available to you is available at www.iom.int

Living in Australia

You have been granted a permanent visa which allows you to travel to and remain in Australia indefinitely. You may wish to learn more about living in Australia. Further information about living in Australia, including the Life in Australia booklet is available on our website at www.border.gov.au

FREE English language classes

You may be eligible to access free English language classes through the Commonwealth Government's Adult Migrant English Program (AMEP). You must register for the program within six months of your visa commencement date or the date you arrive in Australia. For more information or to find your local AMEP service provider visit www.education.gov.au/amep or phone 13 38 73.

About your visa

You have been granted a permanent visa which allows you to remain in Australia indefinitely. This visa allows you to travel to and enter Australia as many times as you want until 11 April 2022. If you wish to travel to

Australia after this expiry date, you will need to apply for, and be granted a Resident Return Visa (RRV). Further information is available on our website at www.border.gov.au

You may wish to consider withdrawing any other undecided visa applications you have lodged with this Department. If you are granted another substantive visa this visa will cease and if applicable, may affect your eligibility for government benefits such as Centrelink or Medicare. To withdraw any other visa applications, you must advise the Department in writing.
